

DREAMS

When I was small my dream
Was to eat ice-cream
When I was six I use to roam
My dream was to clean the world with broom.

When I was ten, my dream
Was to become topper
But every one called me flopper
I didn't care I tried by best
To become a famous guest

Now my dream is all about future
It is not so serious but
I am so curious to find
Who am I?
